Learning to be Witnesses: Embracing Your Fears with Faith

Why do you get out of bed each day? What's your purpose? Why do you think God put you in this place and time? How much peace, love, joy, and hope do you want to experience? Ask the Holy Spirit to help you embrace your fears with faith as you learn to be one of Jesus's witnesses.

Acts of the Apostles 5:12-16 NLT

<small>12</small> The apostles were performing many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. And all the believers were meeting regularly at the Temple in the area known as Solomon's Colonnade. <small>13</small> But no one else dared to join them, even though all the people had high regard for them. <small>14</small> Yet more and more people believed and were brought to the Lord—crowds of both men and women. <small>15</small> As a result of the apostles' work, sick people were brought out into the streets on beds and mats so that Peter's shadow might fall across some of them as he went by. <small>16</small> Crowds came from the villages around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those possessed by evil spirits, and they were all healed.

Sermon in a Sentence:

"Denial is not just a river in Egypt."

When we refuse to admit our shortcomings or refuse to accept responsibility for overcoming them, we start lying to cover them up.

Are you ready to be transparently, painfully honest with Jesus about your life?
