Series Big Idea and Invitation: It seems like most people pray even if they aren't particularly religious. But most of us struggle to pray. Ordinary people like you and I need all the help we can find. Let's smash our prayer struggles this year with a few simple exercises.

Hebrews 10:19-25 NIV

<small>19</small> Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, <small>20</small> by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, <small>21</small> and since we have a great priest over the house of God, <small>22</small> let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. <small>23</small> Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. <small>24</small> And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, <small>25</small> not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Hebrews 4:14-16 NIV

<small>14</small> Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has ascended into heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. <small>15</small> For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin. <small>16</small> Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.
