Mark 3:1-6 NIV

<small>1</small> Another time Jesus went into the synagogue, and a man with a shriveled hand was there.
<small>2</small> Some of them were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus, so they watched him closely to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath. <small>3</small> Jesus said to the man with the shriveled hand, "Stand up in front of everyone." <small>4</small> Then Jesus asked them, "Which is lawful on the Sabbath: to do good or to do evil, to save life or to kill?" But they remained silent. <small>5</small> He looked around at them in anger and, deeply distressed at their stubborn hearts, said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored. <small>6</small> Then the Pharisees went out and began to plot with the Herodians how they might kill Jesus.

Mark 10:13-16 NIV

<small>13</small> People were bringing little children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them, but the disciples rebuked them. <small>14</small> When Jesus saw this, he was indignant. He said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <small>15</small> Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." <small>16</small> And he took the children in his arms, placed his hands on them and blessed them.

Mark 11:15-17 NIV

<small>15</small> On reaching Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple courts and began driving out those who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves, <small>16</small> and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts. <small>17</small> And as he taught them, he said, "Is it not written: 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations'

? But you have made it 'a den of robbers.' "
