Psalms 62:5-8 NLT

<small>5</small> Let all that I am wait quietly before God, for my hope is in him. <small>6</small> He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress where I will not be shaken. <small>7</small> My victory and honor come from God alone. He is my refuge, a rock where no enemy can reach me. <small>8</small> O my people, trust in him at all times. Pour out your heart to him, for God is our refuge. Interlude

Isaiah 40:28-31 NIV

<small>28</small> Do you not know? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. <small>29</small> He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. <small>30</small> Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; <small>31</small> but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

Luke 8:22-25 ESV

<small>22</small> One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake." So they set out, <small>23</small> and as they sailed he fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water and were in danger. <small>24</small> And they went and woke him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And he awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging waves, and they ceased, and there was a calm. <small>25</small> He said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they were afraid, and they marveled, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even winds and water, and they obey him?"
