Philippians 2:5-11 MSG
<small>5-8</small> Think of yourselves the way Christ Jesus thought of himself. He had equal status with God but didn't think so much of himself that he had to cling to the advantages of that status no matter what. Not at all. When the time came, he set aside the privileges of deity and took on the status of a slave, became human ! Having become human, he stayed human. It was an incredibly humbling process. He didn't claim special privileges. Instead, he lived a selfless, obedient life and then died a selfless, obedient death--and the worst kind of death at that--a crucifixion. <small>9-11</small> Because of that obedience, God lifted him high and honored him far beyond anyone or anything, ever, so that all created beings in heaven and on earth--even those long ago dead and buried--will bow in worship before this Jesus Christ, and call out in praise that he is the Master of all, to the glorious honor of God the Father.

Mark 12:28-31 NIRV
<small>28</small> One of the teachers of the law came and heard the Sadducees arguing. He noticed that Jesus had given the Sadducees a good answer. So he asked him, "Which is the most important of all the commandments?" <small>29</small> Jesus answered, "Here is the most important one. Moses said, 'Israel, listen to me. The Lord is our God. The Lord is one. <small>30</small> Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Love him with all your mind and with all your strength.' (Deuteronomy 6:4 , 5) <small>31</small> And here is the second one. 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.' (Leviticus 19:18) There is no commandment more important than these."

John 15:9-13 NIV

<small>9</small> "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love. <small>10</small> If you keep my commands, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commands and remain in his love. <small>11</small> I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. <small>12</small> My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. <small>13</small> Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends.

Title: Don't Miss the Point of the Prayer

Text: Luke 11:1-4

Luke 11:1-4 NIV

<small>1</small> One day Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."
<small>2</small> He said to them, "When you pray, say: "'Father, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come.
<small>3</small> Give us each day our daily bread. <small>4</small> Forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who sins against us. And lead us not into temptation. ' "

Matthew 4:17 NASB

<small>17</small> From that time Jesus began to preach and say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Sermon in a Sentence:

Every day the conclusion of Jesus' coronation grows closer.

Let's pray the prayer Jesus taught us to say.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.

[For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.]
