James 1:19-26 NIV
<small>19</small> My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, <small>20</small> because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. <small>21</small> Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you. <small>22</small> Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. <small>23</small> Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror <small>24</small> and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. <small>25</small> But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in itâ€”not forgetting what they have heard, but doing itâ€”they will be blessed in what they do. <small>26</small> Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless.
