Series: Life in God's Kingdom (Ephesians 4:1-16)
Series Big Idea and Invitation: All the followers of Jesus hold dual citizenship. The question we must ask ourselves is which citizenship will be primary for us. Am I a citizen of my political nation that's also a citizen of God's Kingdom? Or am I a citizen of God's Kingdom that's also a citizen of this political nation? There is a difference. Our first loyalty must always belong to King Jesus.
Text: Ephesians 4:1-6
Title: One to Reign Over All

Ephesians 4:1-6 NIV

<small>1</small> As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received.

<small>2</small> Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love.

<small>3</small> Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

<small>4</small> There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called;

<small>5</small> one Lord, one faith, one baptism;

<small>6</small> one God and Father of all,
who is over all and through all and in all.

Sermon in a Sentence:

Unity in God's Kingdom-Family flows from our focus on King Jesus.
